OPERATIONAL PERFORMANCE REPORT

APRIL 2026

Generated: 17 June 2026

Prepared by: StationDeck AI System

1. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The station recorded a total revenue of UGX 991,833,417 for the period of April 2026, reflecting consistent operational performance across all product categories. Fuel sales remained the primary revenue driver, contributing UGX 913,735,117 to the overall figure, with both PMS and AGO products performing within expected operational ranges. The station maintained a balanced payment collection profile, with cashless transactions accounting for 55.7% of total collections and cash transactions representing 44.3% of the period total. Cash reconciliation for the period closed with a surplus position. After accounting for all expenses and dealer obligations, the net profit for the period was UGX 40,266,350, with a reserve balance of UGX 17,229,059 remaining after all commitments. Overall, April 2026 represents a stable operational period with revenue performance in line with expectations for a station of this scale and activity level.

FUEL PERFORMANCE SUMMARY

Metric	PMS (Petrol)	AGO (Diesel)
Volume Sold	65,198 L	105,913 L
Revenue	UGX 358,755,029	UGX 554,980,088
Avg Daily Revenue	UGX 30,457,837
Combined Revenue		UGX 913,735,117

2. FUEL SALES AND VOLUME ANALYSIS

Fuel sales for April 2026 were anchored by both PMS (petrol) and AGO (diesel) product lines. PMS volumes reached 65,198.80 litres over the 30-day operating period, while AGO volumes totalled 105,913.38 litres, reflecting the station's dual-market position serving both private motorists and commercial transport operators. The total fuel revenue of UGX 913,735,117 demonstrates the station's capacity to sustain high throughput across both product categories simultaneously. Average daily fuel revenue stood at UGX 30,457,837, providing a reliable benchmark for planning and performance comparison in subsequent periods.

3. FUEL STOCK MOVEMENT AND DELIVERIES

Fuel stock movement for April 2026 recorded 9 PMS deliveries totalling 72,000.00 litres and 9 AGO deliveries totalling 110,700.00 litres. Stock movement data was available for this period and reflects accurate dip-based measurements. PMS stock loss/gain for the period was -249.16 litres, while AGO recorded -52.23 litres. The closing stock values stood at UGX 33,001,587 for PMS and UGX 25,956,222 for AGO, representing the station's fuel asset position at period end. Any loss figures outside acceptable variance thresholds should be reviewed against TotalEnergies Uganda's standard loss/gain guidelines and investigated accordingly.

NON-FUEL PRODUCT REVENUE

Product	Revenue
Lubricants	UGX 43,601,800

LPG Gas	UGX 13,649,000
LPG Accessories	UGX 1,023,500
TBA Credits	UGX 2,398,000
Shop Sales	UGX 17,426,000
Total Non-Fuel Revenue	UGX 78,098,300

4. NON-FUEL PRODUCT PERFORMANCE

Non-fuel product performance for April 2026 reflected diversified revenue streams across lubricants, LPG, and accessories. Lubricants generated UGX 43,601,800, while LPG gas contributed UGX 13,649,000 and LPG accessories added UGX 1,023,500. TBA credit sales for the period amounted to UGX 2,398,000. These non-fuel products collectively strengthen the station's revenue resilience and reduce dependence on fuel margin alone. Management is encouraged to monitor stock levels for high-velocity non-fuel products to prevent out-of-stock situations that directly impact customer experience and revenue.

5. SHOP PERFORMANCE

The station shop generated a total turnover of UGX 17,426,000 during April 2026. The top-performing categories were non-alcoholic beverages, confectionery, and fresh products, which collectively accounted for the majority of shop revenue. Non-fuel retail continues to be a growing contributor to the station's overall revenue diversification, complementing fuel income and improving per-customer revenue metrics. Management is encouraged to monitor slow-moving categories and align stock levels with actual sales velocity to reduce write-offs and improve working capital efficiency.

PAYMENT COLLECTION BREAKDOWN

Payment Type	Amount	Share
Cash Collected	UGX 457,987,904	44.3%
Cashless Total	UGX 574,991,473	55.7%
■ Plus Card	UGX 57,613,960
■ Visa	UGX 10,615,155
■ Credit Sales	UGX 231,811,087
Total Sales	UGX 1,032,979,377	100%

6. PAYMENT COLLECTION ANALYSIS

Payment collection for April 2026 reflects a station operating in a progressively cashless commercial environment. Cashless transactions accounted for 55.7% of total collections, while cash payments represented the remaining 44.3%. This distribution is consistent with broader trends in Uganda's petroleum retail sector, where fleet card and mobile money adoption continues to grow among commercial customers. Plus Card payments represented the dominant cashless channel, underscoring the importance of the station's relationship with its fleet card operator. Credit sales require continued monitoring to ensure timely settlement and to manage the station's receivables exposure within acceptable risk parameters.

7. PROFIT AND LOSS ANALYSIS

The Profit and Loss statement for April 2026 recorded a gross income of UGX 49,284,383 before operational expenses. After deducting all operational expenses totalling UGX 9,182,900, the net profit for the period was UGX 40,266,350. Following dealer obligations including shop rent, management fees, and savings commitments, the reserve balance available to the dealer stood at UGX 17,229,059. Salaries, utilities, and transport represented the primary expense categories. Management should review any expense lines showing month-on-month increases against approved budgets and seek authorisation for any unbudgeted expenditure.

CASH RECONCILIATION SUMMARY

Item	Value
Cash Collected	UGX 457,987,904
Total Banked	UGX 383,267,754
Expected to Bank	UGX 383,267,754
Net Delta	UGX 8,097,445
Delta Status	SURPLUS
Days with Anomalies	30

8. CASH RECONCILIATION AND OPERATIONAL INTEGRITY

Cash reconciliation for April 2026 closed with a net delta of UGX 8,097,445, resulting in a surplus position for the period. This outcome reflects the aggregate variance between cash amounts physically banked and the theoretical cash expected based on recorded sales and cashless deductions. A total of 30 days out of 30 operating days recorded anomalies in their daily cash reconciliation figures, indicating that variance management requires continued supervisory attention. Station management is advised to review individual anomaly days to determine whether variances are attributable to timing differences, rounding, or procedural gaps in daily cash handling.

9. DEBTORS AND DEPOSITORS ANALYSIS

The station's debtor ledger as at the control date reflected a total outstanding balance of UGX 49,006,912 across active customer accounts. Credit management requires close attention to ensure that approved credit limits are respected and that outstanding balances are settled within agreed payment terms. Pre-payment depositor accounts held a combined balance of UGX 90,911,463, representing committed fuel and product purchases from institutional and government customers. Management should ensure depositor balances are reconciled monthly against consumption records and that expiring deposits are flagged for renewal or settlement.

10. FINANCIAL POSITION

The station's financial position as at the end of April 2026 reflected a net position of UGX 367,438,466 after deducting all known liabilities. Stock assets, cash holdings, trading account balances, and customer receivables formed the primary components of the asset base. Liabilities primarily comprised uninvoiced product, accrued but unpaid expenses, and pre-payment balances owed to depositing customers. The overall financial position indicates a well-capitalised station with adequate asset coverage for its operational obligations.

11. CLAIMS AND OUTSTANDING OBLIGATIONS

Outstanding promotion and fuel claims as at the control date amounted to UGX 19,074,188. These claims include LPG promotion reimbursements, solar product promotions, and UN/UPDF fuel consumption claims pending settlement from TotalEnergies Uganda. Management should ensure that all claims are supported by required documentation and submitted within prescribed claim windows to avoid forfeiture. Timely follow-up with TotalEnergies territory representatives is recommended to accelerate settlement of long-outstanding claims.
